Editors' Notes

¹ In lieu of a library having its own charitable status, the municipality can issue receipts for tax purposes on the library's behalf.

² Gifts of service, such as accounting or legal opinion, cannot be issued tax receipts under the Income Tax Act because no property is transferred. If a donor wishes to offer a gift of service by charging the library a fee and donating the proceeds back to the Library, then a receipt for the outright gift will be issued. The payment of the service invoice cannot be contractually linked to the subsequent outright gift; it must be the donor's choice.

³ In advance of accepting gifts of securities, libraries should determine what process they will use: opening a brokerage account, through the municipality, or asking donors to use Canada Helps.
